Every House to Feature Molteni & C built-in wardrobes

【28 April 2015, Hong Kong】Crowning the peak of Kau To Shan, “kau to HIGHLAND”, presented by Couture Homes Limited (Couture Homes) features beautiful, bespoke built-in wardrobes designed by Molteni & C in every villa to infuse each home with exquisite Italian elegance. The series, created to commemorate the landmark 80th anniversary of the leading European furnishing brand, is named “Dolomites”. Proudly presented by Couture Homes and involving a significant investment, the “Dolomites” series underscores the prestige and dominant positioning of “kau to HIGHLAND” and gives it a unique appeal to buyers seeking a contemporary aesthetic.

Carlo Molteni, Chairman of the Molteni Group stated, “To celebrate our Group’s 80th anniversary, we have designed an exclusive series of wardrobes and kitchen cabinets to match and complement the grandeur of ‘kau to HIGHLAND’. We have named this series ‘Dolomites’ after the Dolomites mountain range in the Italian Alps. The ‘kau to HIGHLAND’ silhouette resembles the peaks and valleys of the Dolomites.”

Jimmy Fong, Managing Director of Couture Homes, said, “‘kau to HIGHLAND’ provides discerning buyers with a distinguished, luxury lifestyle while the ‘Dolomites’ series brings signature Italian flair to the development. It gives us great pleasure, therefore, to introduce this special series of renowned Italian furnishings. Representing a considerable investment, the ‘Dolomites’ have been crafted exclusively for ‘kau to HIGHLAND’ with a splendid assortment of design elements to accentuate the unique features of each villa.”

Mr Fong added, “The Molteni Group has contributed to the splendour of ‘kau to HIGHLAND’ with its premium built-in wardrobes which are the very epitome of Italian flair and style. The development is the first property in Hong Kong to feature built-in wardrobes by Molteni & C as standard provision of every house, redefining the paradigm of luxury living in Hong Kong.”

The “Dolomites” series is inspired by the Dolomites mountain range in Italy. Its breath-taking landscape, splendid views, and status as an enclave for luxury homes are all characteristics shared by “kau to HIGHLAND”. The “Dolomites” series uses Italian woodgrain materials to bring nature into the home. Some wardrobes are decorated with a glass finish while every wardrobe comes with a pull-out clothing rail, drawers and a trouser rack. The development’s world-class design team, comprising Steve Leung, Tara Bernerd and Norman Chan, will advise on selection of materials to ensure that each wardrobe is custom-designed for every villa, leveraging the flexible personalisation of the “Dolomites” series to help buyers express their individuality and style.
